Ciudadanos fieles

20. La doctrina de la Iglesia es clara al decir que el bien no justifica medios inmorales. Al buscar todos nosotros el avance del bien común —defendiendo la santidad inviolable de la vida humana desde el momento de la concepción hasta su muerte natural, promoviendo la libertad religiosa, defendiendo el matrimonio, alimentando al hambriento y dando techo al desamparado, dando la bienvenida al inmigrante y protegiendo el medio ambiente— es importante reconocer que no todos los proyectos de acción posibles son moralmente aceptables. Tenemos la responsabilidad de discernir cuidadosamente qué políticas públicas son moralmente sólidas. Los católicos pueden elegir diferentes maneras de responder a los problemas sociales imperiosos, pero no podemos alejarnos de nuestra obligación moral de ayudar a construir un mundo más justo y pacífico con medios moralmente aceptables, de forma que el débil y el vulnerable sean protegidos, y los derechos y dignidad humanas defendidos.

Trabajando Con Quienes Han Sido Afectados por el Aborto

La Oficina Diocesana de Cuidado Pastoral Para las Familias en Todas sus Etapas continúa reclutando nuevos ministros de acompañamiento que sirven en el Ministerio de Hope and Healing (Esperanza & Sanación). Este ministerio diocesano de alcance se esfuerza para satisfacer las necesidades de las personas cuyas vidas han sido afectadas por el aborto.

Necesitamos a personas que se sientan llamados a ministrar con este grupo muy especial de personas. No es necesario que el aborto haya sido su experiencia directa. Lo que se requiere es que los voluntarios puedan proporcionar una presencia atenta, compasiva y sin prejuicios para alguien que sufre y que busca la reconciliación con Dios y con su comunidad de fe. Estamos en una necesidad especial de personas que sean bilingües, biculturales y que puedan leer y escribir en otros idiomas aparte del inglés (es decir, español, vietnamita, coreano, etc.) para satisfacer las necesidades de todos en nuestras comunidades de fe.

La sensibilidad de este Ministerio requiere algún entrenamiento formal. Por favor, consideren este ministerio con oración. ¡Necesitamos su ayuda! Para preguntas acerca de este ministerio, favor de comunicarse con Michael Donaldson al 714-282-4203 o en mdonaldson@rcbo.org

Faithful Citizenship

20. The Church's teaching is clear that a good end does not justify an immoral means. As we all seek to advance the common good—by defending the inviolable sanctity of human life from the moment of conception until natural death, by promoting religious freedom, by defending marriage, by feeding the hungry and housing the homeless, by welcoming the immigrant and protecting the environment—it is important to recognize that not all possible courses of action are morally acceptable. We have a responsibility to discern carefully which public policies are morally sound. Catholics may choose different ways to respond to compelling social problems, but we cannot differ on our moral obligation to help build a more just and peaceful world through morally acceptable means, so that the weak and vulnerable are protected and human rights and dignity are defended.

Reflections from the Gloria Dei Choir

For the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Gloria Dei Choir returns to sing at the 9:30 a.m. Mass. Last week's visit to the 11:15 a.m. Mass allowed the choir to connect with parishioners who don't regularly get to hear them in worship – and to extend an invitation to them to join our ranks as we lead worship through music at OLG. We hope that hearing us return to the 9:30 a.m. Mass this morning will inspire some of you to venture upstairs to the choir loft to enjoy the fellowship of making music with people like you who love to sing!

Appropriately, the choir sings Craig Courtney's arrangement of "How Can I Keep From Singing?" This beloved hymn has long been misattributed as being of Quaker or Shaker origin, but was in fact composed in 1869 by the prolific hymn-writer and Baptist minister Robert Lowry. Artists such as Pete Seeger and, more recently, Enya have altered the lyrics, removing much of the Christ-centered content, but their recordings have brought renewed interest in the hymn and it is becoming more widely sung in churches in recent years.

During Communion, the choir sings John Rutter's anthem "Open Thou Mine Eyes." The text is a private devotional prayer by Lancelot Andrewes, who is remembered today chiefly for his work in translating the King James Version of the Bible. He is credited with translating more of the KJV than any other scholar and the beauty of his prose has been widely celebrated. Rutter's understated setting of the text features one of his loveliest original melodies, which he says was inspired by the contours of Celtic folk song:

Open thou mine eyes and I shall see;
Incline my heart and I shall desire;
Order my steps and I shall walk
In the ways of thy commandments.

O Lord God, be thou to me a God
And beside thee let there be none else,
No other, naught else with thee.

Vouchsafe to me to worship thee and serve thee
According to thy commandments
In truth of spirit, in reverence of body,
In blessings of lips,
In private and in public.

Working with Those Who Have Been Affected by Abortion

The Diocese of Orange Office of Pastoral Care for Families in all Stages is recruiting new companion ministers to serve in the Hope and Healing After Abortion Ministry. This diocesan outreach ministry strives to meet the needs of those whose lives have been affected by abortion. We are in need of individuals who feel called to minister with this very special group of people. It is not necessary for abortion to have been your direct experience. What is required is that the volunteer can provide a caring, compassionate, and non-judgmental presence for someone who is suffering and who seeks reconciliation with God and their faith community. We are in special need of those who are bilingual, bi-literate and bi-cultural. The sensitivity of this ministry does require some formal training. For information, please contact Michael Donaldson at (714) 282-4203 or mdonaldson@rcbo.org.
